•	CENTRAL INTELLIGEN	CE AGENCY REPORT NO.
	INFORMATION	CU NO.
COUNTR	Y Guechoslo va kia	CASE 9784 DATE DISTR. 2 / Nov 195 2
SUBJEC	NEW CO.	NO. OF PAGES 2
300020		50X1
PLACE ACQUIRE	ED	NO. OF ENCLS.
DATE	50	SUPPLEMENT TO
ACQUIR		REPORT NO.
DATE OF	_h
	ENT CONTAINS INFORMATION AFFECTING THE NATIONAL DIFFERENCE THE OSTATES, WITHIN THE MEANING OF TITLE 18. SECTIONS 793. F THE U.S. COOL, AS ANKHOEG. ITS TRANSMISSIS. OP REVELIFS CONTENTS TO ON RECEIFT BY AN AUNITHORIZED REPSON IS BY LAY. THE REPRODUCTION OF THIS FORM IS PROMISITED.	THIS IS UNEVALUATED INFORMATION
	·
		50X1
1.	Czech military maps are printed in th Institute in Frague-Dejvice. They ar this Institute was moved to Banska By Slovakia.	e also stored there Im 1949, a part or
1.	Institute in Frague-Dejvice. They are this Institute was moved to Banska By Slovakia. The Czechs are preint the ispo,000 scale. The Army uses following scales: 1:10,000. 1:25,000 For the time being, only a few areas	salso stored there Im 1949, a part or strice /4844N-1909E/ . paring a new issue of maps maps of older issue of the , 1:75,000, 1:200,000, are covered by the new issue
1.	Institute in Frague-Dejvice. They are this Institute was moved to Banska By Slovakia. The Czechs are present the Ispo,000 scale. The Army uses following scales: 1:10,000. 1:25,000 For the time being, only a few areas of maps. The Military Academy in Lip for instance, received only a map of Libava. All the military maps issued printed in the current Czech format a original Czechoslovak numbering and solely in the Czech language. Prepar the printing of new maps according to in August 1951, the chief of the topo Infantry School at Lipnik mad Beevou	In 1949, a part or strice /4844N-1909E/. paring a new issue of maps maps of older issue of the , 1:75,000, 1:200,000. are covered by the new issue nik nad Becvou /1932N-1736E/, the military training area until the end of 1951 were nd were provided with the ymbols; they were printed ations were under way for the Soviet pattern. Sometime graphic section at the received samples of Soviet
1.	Institute in Frague-Dejvice. They are this Institute was moved to Banska By Slovakia. The Czechs are present the lapo,000 scale. The Army uses following scales: 1:10,000. 1:25,000 for the time being, only a few areas of maps. The Military Academy in Lip for instance, received only a map of Libava. All the military maps issued printed in the current Czech format a original Czechoslovak numbering and solely in the Czech language. Prepar the printing of new maps according to	In 1949, a part or Strice /4844N-1909E/ paring a new issue of maps made of older issue of the , 1:75,000, 1:200,000, are covered by the new issue mik had Becvou /1932N-1736E/, the military training area until the end of 1951 were nd were provided with the ymbols; they were printed ations were under way for the Soviet pattern. Sometime graphic section at the received samples of Soviet General Staff. He was to what extent the Soviet s than the current Czech phic section was a Communist, ical beliefs and he
1.	Institute in frague-Dejvice. They are this Institute was moved to Banska By Slovakia. The Czechs are present the 1850,000 scale. The Army uses following scales: 1:10,000. 1:25,000 for the time being, only a few areas of maps. The Military Academy in Lip for instance, received only a map of Libava. All the military maps issued printed in the current Czech format a original Czechoslovak numbering and s solely in the Czech language. Prepar the printing of new maps according to in August 1951, the chief of the topo Infantry School at Lipnik mad Beevou maps and topographic symbols from the instructed to express his opinion as print was better and more advantageou maps. Since the chief of the topographic opinion corresponded to his polit suggested that new military maps be p	In 1949, a part or Strice /4844N-1909E/ paring a new issue of maps made of older issue of the , 1:75,000, 1:200,000, are covered by the new issue mik had Becvou /1932N-1736E/, the military training area until the end of 1951 were nd were provided with the ymbols; they were printed ations were under way for the Soviet pattern. Sometime graphic section at the received samples of Soviet General Staff. He was to what extent the Soviet s than the current Czech phic section was a Communist, ical beliefs and he
1.	Institute in frague-Dejvice. They are this Institute was moved to Banska By Slovakia. The Czechs are present the 1850,000 scale. The Army uses following scales: 1:10,000. 1:25,000 For the time being, only a few areas of maps. The Military Academy in Lip for instance, received only a map of Libava. All the military maps issued printed in the current Czech format a original Czechoslovak numbering and s solely in the Czech language. Prepar the printing of new maps according to in August 1951, the chief of the topo Infantry School at Lipnik mad Beevou maps and topographic symbols from the instructed to express his opinion as print was better and more advantageou maps. Since the chief of the topographic opinion corresponded to his polit suggested that new military maps be p pattern.	In 1949, a part or Strice /4844N-1909E/ paring a new issue of maps made of older issue of the , 1:75,000, 1:200,000, are covered by the new issue mik had Becvou /1932N-1736E/, the military training area until the end of 1951 were nd were provided with the ymbols; they were printed ations were under way for the Soviet pattern. Sometime graphic section at the received samples of Soviet General Staff. He was to what extent the Soviet s than the current Czech phic section was a Communist, ical beliefs and he

-2-

50X1

2.

50X1

3.

the extent of map training for troop units and NCOs. Students in officers' schools are given training in the following:

- (a) General information on basic conical and cylindrical topographic projections;
- (b) Knowledge of topographic symbols;
- (c) Ability to read terrain features;
- (d) Methods of transposing map situations onto the terrain, and vice versa;
- (e) Constructing terrain profiles for ascertaining observation possibilities and firing clearance;
- (f) Construction of slope scale for ascertaining the percentage of terrain ascendancy;
- (g) Methods of transposing aerial photographs into maps, and vice versa;
- (h) Methods of locating targets on maps by use of coordinates;
- (i) Drawing sketches;

(1) -

(j) Drawing panoramic sketches.

-end-